

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing with the request for a visitor visa to Canada to attend a research conference organized by the Acoustical Society of America and the Canadian Acoustical Association in Montreal from June 3rd to June 6th 2013.

I have included all the required documents as indicated in the online application checklist. The travel history details are presented by the scan of the stamped pages of my passports. Since I have just obtained a new passport, which I have not yet used to travel outside of the United States, I am attaching the scans of both of them, including both the front page and the visa/stamp pages.

As I am currently a doctoral candidate at Northeastern University, yet the online form does not allow uploading of student enrolment proof, I am attaching at the end of this document my I-20 form and latest transcript.

I would also like to clarify that although my F-1 visa has already expired, I am still authorized to stay in the United States for the duration of student status. I will only have to renew my F-1 visa if I travel to a country other than the US, Canada, and Mexico. Please refer to: <http://iss.washington.edu/rules-regulations/f1>. This is to avoid the misunderstanding that often arises to people not familiar with the F-1 visa system.

Thank you very much for your attention to my application. Should you have any other requirements, I will fully comply with all of them.

Sincerely yours,

Duong D. Tran.
